

Toastmasters host International Contest

Speak for Success York Simcoe Toastmasters will host its annual International Speech Contest for club members on Tuesday, February 13th, at Kotsy's Restaurant Banquet Hall (downstairs), 210 Holland St. E., 7 p.m. sharp. All are welcome to come out, watch and listen, as contestants put into practice the skills developed in the club.

Speak for Success-York Simcoe Toastmasters is now

poised more than ever to help people improve their speaking and communication skills, and broaden the scope of opportunities that life has to offer, says Steve Hopkinson, Vice President of Public Relations. "We are excited about helping people move to the next level in their lives, both personally and professionally. Communication is key in all areas... and our club is really making a difference in people's lives" - people like Bradford resident Bonnie Walker, who attained her icebreaker speech award on January 23rd.

Meetings are held on the 2nd, 4th and 5th Tuesdays of each month, and Guests are always welcome, at no cost or obligation. For more information, visit www.speakforsuccess.org or contact Steve Hopkinson, 905-252-0740.
